Fund Commentary and Activity | As of April 2023
Market Update

April was generally a positive month for global equity markets despite US bank failures, ongoing global inflation concerns, and interest rate uncertainty. North American markets were positive with the S&P500 Index up +1.46%, the NASDAQ was up +0.04% and the TSX TR Index up +2.90%. European markets were also positive as the EuroStoxx Index was up +1.02% and the FTSE up +3.13%. Asian markets were mixed as the Hang Seng was down -2.48%, the NIKKEI was up +2.91% and the Shanghai Index up by +1.53%. Prices on the 10-year US Treasury bond rose as yields moved from 3.49% to 3.43% by month's end. The Volatility index (VIX) flattened by moving from 18.70 to 15.78. Commodity price movements were positive as Oil (WTI) rose by 1.50% to $76.78 and Gold rose by 1% to U$1,990. The Canadian dollar was flat during the month closing at $1.3552 against the US$.

Fund Update

Against that backdrop, the Kensington Alternative Strategies Fund rose with estimated returns of +0.50% (+1.82% YTD) for April. Compared against the TSX Index which rose by +2.90% (+7.37% YTD). The Fund's standard deviation of monthly returns remains low and the correlation to the TSX also continues to be low.

Our underlying managers' performance was strong for the month as 13 of the 16 managers were in positive territory. Many of the managers continue to be somewhat nervous of the global equity markets and are running fairly flat books. Caution would seem to be at the forefront of managers' activity.

We believe that the Fund continues to be well positioned for these uncertain times. The Fund has now been operating for 139 months generating over 65 basis points per month on average with only 32 down months (about 80% monthly positive results). The balanced approach to the portfolio composition should allow the Fund to weather most storms. We also continue to investigate new managers to try to improve the composition of the Fund
